Manttoba Affairs.

- Last winter, Manitoba was at war with Gov. McDougall, the Canadian Government, and the British Crown. Riel was "Monsieur Le President" of the Provisional Government, The Hudson Bay Company's government was swamped by the "rebels,"—and French, Scotch, and Yankee formed an alliance with Jack Frost to keep out the Canadian invaders. When, however, Donald A.

The conciliatory measures of the British Columbian tyranny, the war was over. The conciliatory measures of the Canadian Cabinet, as developed after Richot, and Scott appeared at Ottamoved from ecclesiastical control, and civil marriage to be introduced in the whole of Germany. Political and press offences are to be tried by jury, and the period of military bald, prepared the Manitobans to cordially receive the new political dispensation. In due time, Gov. Archibald articles are to be liable to trial in the ordinary tribunals. Political and press offences are to be introduced in the whole of Germany. rived in Red River, as the real author of their liberties, Riel, escaped to a secure whelter from "the might that makes serious difficulties for the National Liberals right." The time of the new Governor seems to have been since employed in preparing for the organization of the Proaccording to statute. Hence, the last advices, up to the first of November, tell us that the settlement was in all the throes of political parturition. So far as ber Coats, for sale at D. Green's clothing we can make out, the elections for the local Legislature, that were to come store, Government street, two doors from St. off during this month or the last, will be conducted without the announcement of any platform of political prin- house formerly occupied by Mr McNiff, Broad ciples. Personal popularity and the street. the chief means to entitle the caudidate to be returned. There is a section of the people there who claim to be "loyalists," and another party who distingushed themselves as "rebels." On many points both parties are united. The Frenchspeaking party claim the right to rule; doubtless by virtue of their success in etting the new Constitution. It may be because they have the votes. The elec-tion will, however, tell. It is not expected to be a very exciting affair. Some members, out of the twenty to be returned, will be elected by acclamation. The others may have a sharp contest. Next lannary, when the election occurs for the House of Commons, will be the time when political excitement promises to ren high in Manitoba. Honors, mileage, per THEATRE ROYAL, CLOTHING & DRY GOODS diem, patronage, party feeling, personal popularity and political craft will make in Manitabo, as elsewhere, the members of that Province in the House of Commons. The gentlemen spoken of as candidates, are Donald A. Smith and Dr. Bird; and also Dr. Schultz and Dr. Lynch, Manitoba is likely to be efflicted with medical politicians like British Columbia is now and like Upper Canada once was. She will get over that one day : so will we. It is a sure sign of progress in new colouies when Doctors disappear from the political arena. The contig-uity of Manitoba to British Columbia and the way in which that country has teen treated politically, creates a kind of sympathy in its favor. House of Commons then the Opposition.

The Dresden correspondent of the Pall Mall Gazette, writing October 8. says :

The expectation that the war would put an end to political dissensions among the Germans has only been very partially fulfilled. It is true that the desire for German unity has become universal, but the strife of parties and the unpopularity of the Prussian Government is as great as ever. Here in Dresden, for instance, the question of the annexation of Alsace and Lorraine has given rise to a struggle between the Burgerthum, or middle class, and the lower classes which is very characteristic of the differences in political feeling and aspiration between these two important sections of the population all over Germany. The Burgerthum, which belongs chiefly to the so-called "National Libertal" party, not only warmly advocated the proposed annexation, but, in strange contradiction to its Liberal prosessions, uses its insee with the Government to put down all the burdens of the war more severely than V the other classes, is anxious for peace and the shares the opinions of Dr. Jacoby (who is the start of the peace and shares the opinions of Dr. Jacoby (who is the start of the start mit any gifts to be made to the French, cig-ars, wine, and other luxuries are often sur-reptitiously introduced into the prison by the workingmen. This has excited great indig-nation among the Burgers, who denounce the workmen in the press as traitors to their country, and urge the authorities to be more vigilent in preventing such unsearch. ant in preventing such unseemly courte-to the enemies of Germany.

The great majority of the German workingmen belong to the "Democratic Socialist" party. This party is much more practical in its objects and organization than that of the Communists of 1864; it is in constant communication with the trade societies all over munication with the trade societies all over the country, and has its representatives in all the German Parliaments. Its former leaders, who signed the famous Brunswick manifesto, calling upon the workmen of Germany to protest against any territorial acquisitions from France; are now in prison in Rast Prussia; and the party is for the present isoned on similar grounds at Mayence, in anover, at Gotha, at Celle, in Hamburg, at Offenback, and at Meerane (in Saxony.) he latter place, and at Hejdhausen, in varia, enthusiastic meetings have been held by members of the same party in favor of the French Republic and against the "humiliation of the French nation for the advantage of the ruling caste in Germany."

Between the Democratic Socialists and the National Liberals is the Fortschrift party, or party of progress, which has lost much of its influence since 1866; but still numbers among its ranks some able and popular men, such as Virchow and Schalze-Delisch. This party demands a Confederate Parliament, considerations.

Supreme Court. [Before Chief Justice Begbie and Judge Crease.]

TUESDAY, Dec. 6. Tolmie vs. Smith .- This was an action ommenced in the County Court, to recover Notice had been given by the plaintiff that the case would be tried before a Judge of the Supreme Court, pursuant to the "County Courts Amendment Ordinance, 1870." The Attorney General, instructed by Mr. Drake, appeared for the plaintiff, and Mr. McCreight, instructed by Mr. Johnson, for the defendant. On objections raised by Mr. McCreight, the Court held that the provisions of the ordinance had not been complied with, and adjourned the hearing for a week.

the Alhambra performances by the minstre!s. parture on the steamer Pelican for San Francisco. Mr. Richards has tendered a beuefit to Messrs. Rhoades and Foster which will take place some evening before their departure, probably Monday night. Both these gentlemen have made a great many friends in Vicioria by their urbanity of manner during their short stay here, and no doubt they will get a good benefit. When the troupe take their departure they will be missed, as there will be no place in the city to go and have a good evening's enjoygiven at the Alhambra bave been of the most chaste and refined character, and will contique to be so as long as the troupe is under the management of Mr. Shoades and the pa-

TESTIMONIAL TO SER JOHN A. MACDONALD .-We observe by the Canadian papers that a movement is on foot in Canada to give the Premier a handsome testimonial, in the shape of $150,000, as a token of the public appreciation of his services. The opposition papers seem disposed to belittle the marter; but, possibly, that is the stronger reason to believe that Sir John A. Macdonald is the more likely to get the money. It is said that the Hon. D. L. McPherson, is the main-mover in the affair. A tew years ago, it will be recollected that the admirers of the Hon. Geo. Mr. J. P. Davies, at the store of Mr. Waller, plied: "I am by no means certain of what what he sees. He is an excellent executive, Brown presented him with the brick premises on Fort street, took place yesterday, and was you say; I have too long yet to live; were in which the Globe is now published, in Toront . The only case of the kind that we ever knew of in this country was in behalf of a noted politician in New Westmiuster. Couldn't persuade them to repeat it now.

MONTANA. - Several parties arrived direc from the upper country during the past week. They report mining as practically closed in that Territory for this season. These parties do not give a very favorable report of the Jaun Island, wit. the hull of a small steamer mines in and around Cedar creek, and state that the Mongolians have control of a large quantity of mining ground, and almost en tirely own the creek at its head. When they ur d'alene mountains suc lay on the ground to the depth of about eighteen inches, making travelling difficult. rom San Francisco, and the steamer Caliand in many places dangerous. Snow is now e-timated to the three feet deep on these mountains, thus shutting up that r ute from further travel this season. - Walla Walla

THE MINSTRELS -It would seem that the nearer it comes to the departure of the minstrels from the city, the more they improve. Miss Sucie Lee, in her song and dance, last night, was excellent, and drew forth a great deal of applause. Miss Bensel als, did well their respective characters. This evening two or three others caught it from him.—
there will be another grand performance, at Oregon Bulletin. which every person should be present.

TEA MEETING .- The annual tea meeting of the Methodist Church, Victoria, will take place this evening, at the St. Nicholas Hall, served at 7 o'clock, after which there will be speeches by several reverend and lay gentle men. There is no doubt but the Hall will be crowded, as it always is on an occasion of this kind. These annual gathering are al-ways very social. There are a few tickets yet remaining, and those who wish to get them had better do so early this morning.

sceptre that he could not uphold The Orleans branch, although acceptable, is too feeble. It partakes too much of the other Bourbons, and it will meet with the same fate should its members not prefer to live the life of simple citizens, no matter what changes may intervene. Once again France will be republican, and the other countries will follow her example. Germans, day; "I know that I am not wise or pru-dent; Heaven never cut me out for a great and Russians will unite with her in a crusade in favour of liberty. They will take up arms against their sovereigns, who will hasten to make concessions to them so as to retain a part of their old authority. They will cal themselves constitutional kings, with limited powers. Thus will the feudal system receive its death blow. Like fog in the midst of the ocean it will vanish at the first rays of the sun of liberty.

But things will not remain there; the wheels of revolution will not stop at that point; its impetuosity will multiply five-fold, and its rapidity will increase in like proportion. When a people has regained a part of its rights it becomes enthusiastically inspired by victory, and having tasted the sweets of Augusta and his Majesty had scarcely spoken to each other for months until the breaking out of the war, and when, after war was declared, the royal couple were seen riding under the lindens together, the people of Berlin could scarcely believe their eyes.
